

2) The Reproaches

O'Hara

All join in with the chorus:

1. I led you out of Egypt. From slavery I set you free. I brought you into a land of promise; you have prepared a cross for me. R/.
2. I led you as a shepherd, I brought you safely through the sea, fed you with manna in the desert; you have prepared a cross for me. R/.
3. I fought for you in battles, I won you strength and victory, gave you a royal crown and sceptre; you have prepared a cross for me. R/.
4. I planted you, my vineyard; and cared for you most tenderly, looked for abundant fruit, and found none - only the cross you made for me. R/.
5. Then listen to my pleading, and do not turn away from me. You are my people: will you reject me? For you I suffer bitterly. R/.

Celebration of the Lord's Passion

The priest enters in silence. All kneel as the priest prostrates in front of the altar. Remain kneeling when the priest stands to say the opening prayer.

First Reading: Isaiah 52:13-53:12

Responsorial Psalm:

Wolff

Fa - ther in - to your hands I com - mend my spir - it.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16, 5:7-9

Gospel Acclamation:

Praise to you O Christ, King of eternal glory.
Christ was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him on high and gave him a name which is above all names.
Praise to you O Christ, King of eternal glory.

Gospel: The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

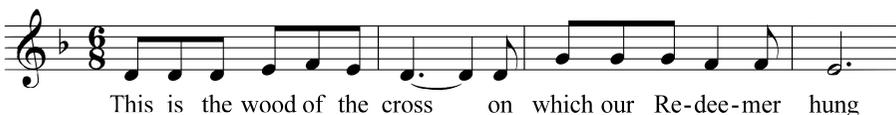

Homily & General Intercessions

The Veneration of the Cross

The first unveiling

Choir Men:

Inwood

This is the wood of the cross on which our Re-dee-mer hung

All kneel and reply:

Come, come, let us a-dore, come, come, let us a-dore the

Sa - viour of the world.

Cantor: Dearest cross on which he died in this blessed Passiontide.
One and only noble tree, none in fruit thy peer can be.

All repeat: Come, come let us adore ...

All stand.

The second unveiling

Choir Men: This is the wood ...

All kneel and reply: Come, come let us adore ...

Cantor: Dearest wood and dearest iron, dearest weight is hung thereon.
Never was a tree so fair, none in Eden was thy peer.

All repeat: Come, come let us adore ...

All stand

The third unveiling

Choir Men: This is the wood ...

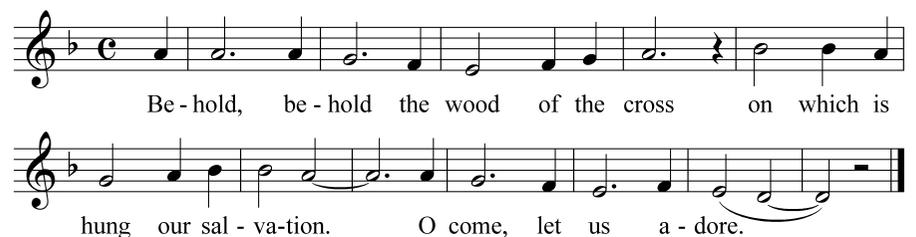

All kneel and reply: Come, come let us adore ...

Veneration of the Cross

During the veneration the following are sung:

1) Behold the Wood

Schutte

Be - hold, be - hold the wood of the cross on which is hung our sal - va - tion. O come, let us a - dore.

1. Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it shall remain but a single grain and not give life. R/.
2. And when my hour of glory comes as all was meant to be, you shall see me lifted up upon a tree. R/.
3. For there can be no greater love shown upon this land than in the one who came to die that we might live. R/.
