New Chairperson of the PPC: At the meeting of the PPC on Tuesday evening Monica Soby stepped down as chair of the PPC, as many of you will know this is due to Monica relocating to Bude. We thank Monica for all she has done during her office as chair. Martin Perry CBE was nominated to stand as the new chairperson by Monica, seconded by Margaret Haxton and there was a unanimous agreement from all the committee members to accept the nomination. Martin joined the parish in 1998 and has been an active member, particularly as a previous member of the PPC, chair and the treasurer of the finance committee, Minister of the word and he has played a key role in many fund raising events. Martin agreed to take on the role and we wish him well and feel certain that he will have full support from all parishioners. Martin will address the parishioners after the 11am Mass at Okehampton.
